ROOMS AND SUITES

Your guests will be spoilt for choice when staying in the individually and elegantly designed 43 deluxe guest rooms and 13 luxury suites. Our rooms are as inviting as they are comfortable, with thoughtful touches and floating votive candles at turndown.

THE HERMES

The Hermes Suite seamlessly combines stunning mid-20th century design with the building's 18th-century architecture for a timeless elegance. An iconic bronze four-poster bed is surrounded by antique furniture and a vintage collection of Hermes scarves is displayed on the luxuriously-upholstered white velvet walls.

THE RUHLMANN

Inspired by the iconic French Art Deco artist Emile-Jacques Ruhlmann, the Ruhlmann Suite is a bold statement in black, cream, and chrome. Featuring lacquered walnut, brushed brass, and intricate inlays, the suite showcases handcrafted Art Deco furnishings and original artwork by Erté. All framed by stunning views over Kensington Gardens.

THE PARIS

The Paris is individually designed and aptly named due to its distinct style with French flair. Beautiful cream hues, cotton/satin stripes and soft furnishings are complemented by antique French furniture. A central skylight fills the room with natural daylight and a leopard design fabric on the sofa bed with a beige Wilton's custom carpet gives the room a serene feel.

THE KENSINGTON GARDEN

The magnificent front-facing views of Kensington Gardens are drawn into this sizeable split-level Master Suite through large floor-to-ceiling bay windows. Traditional design with neutral stripes and shades of white, together with elegant soft furnishings and impressive artwork, creates a feeling of being in a grand country manor house rather than in the heart of the city..

THE NOËL COWARD

The Noël Coward Suite blends traditional flourishes with refined modern style. The suite features a handmade Savoir bed with Indian silks, a striking black-and-white marble bathroom, an ebonized French bureau plat and Giacometti-style chairs. Floor-to-ceiling windows frame enviable views of the Palace and Gardens.
