

2026/27 Partnership Prospectus

propertycouncil.com.au

I am proud to welcome you to the new look Partnership Prospectus for the Property Council of Australia's Victorian division.

Partnerships are at the heart of everything we do, not just for the brand and business benefits they deliver, but because they help fund the advocacy, research and work that support the entire Victorian property industry.

By partnering with us, you're aligning with the peak body for property, one that's trusted, connected and focused on outcomes. The value goes both ways: profile, credibility and business connections for you, and vital support for the industry through your involvement.

Every partnership dollar helps us keep pushing for better outcomes across the sector – and we're always open to new, creative ideas on how we can work together. If you've got something in mind, I'm all ears.

Looking forward to your feedback, and what we can build together.

Regards.

Adrian Byrt

Commercial Director, Victoria

Girls in Property Geelong & Melbourne

July 2026

The Girls in Property program is designed to focus on the next generation where we invite female students in year 9 and 10 to explore the diverse career opportunities within the property industry.

In 2025, the expansion into Geelong took another major step with more students and schools engaged in the day. Through interactive workshops, panel discussions, site tours, project work and awards evenings ... students gain valuable industry insights with the goal to inspire young women into the property sector.

Victorian Industrial Property Summit

August 2026

Join us for an engaging half-day conference that brings together industry leaders, experts, and professionals to explore the most pressing challenges facing Victoria's industrial property market. This event will feature multiple panels and keynote presentations designed to provide valuable insights and practical solutions for tackling today's key issues.

The conference will cover a range of critical topics, including the impact of global supply chain disruptions and infrastructure gaps on local industrial development, the rising demand for sustainability and the challenges of meeting stringent environmental regulations and strategies for addressing labor shortages in the construction sector. We will also dive into the complexities of last-mile logistics, discussing how technological innovation and rising land costs are reshaping the industry.

Victoria's Residential & Living Summit

September 2026

This event will feature a series of panels and keynote sessions, offering expert insights into the key challenges and emerging trends shaping the market.

We'll explore the growing demand for housing in Victoria, driven by population growth and shifting demographic trends and how developers are responding to these pressures. A key topic of discussion will be the rise of Build to Rent developments, as the sector adapts to increasing interest from institutional investors and a growing need for long-term rental solutions. The conference will also address the impact of affordability challenges, regulatory changes and sustainability concerns on residential property development, with a focus on creating more livable, sustainable communities.
