RED WINE BY BOTTLE

BURGUNDY

bottle | Marriott
Bonvoy
Points

Mongeard Mugneret Bourgogne, Pinot Noir 4,550 | 55,488

Burgundy, France

A deep ruby color leads to an expressive nose of dark cherry, blackberry, and a distinct earthy spice. On the palate, it is fleshy and well-concentrated for a regional appellation, showing ripe red and black fruit flavors supported by firm but polished tannins and a hint of forest floor. The finish is savory and remarkably persistent.

Domaine A.F. Gros Bourgogne, Pinot Noir 4,450 | 54,268

Burgundy, France

Featuring high-toned aromas of red currant, wild strawberry, and pomegranate. The palate is light-to-medium-bodied with a crystalline purity, offering flavors of tart cherry and rose petals supported by a delicate, chalky minerality. It finishes with bright acidity and very fine, silky tannins.

Domaine Michel Noëllat
Savigny-Les-Beaune Rouge, Pinot Noir 3,850 | 46,951

Côte de Beaune, France

A bright, ruby-red wine with a bouquet dominated by fresh raspberries and wild strawberries, often accented by delicate floral notes of violets and a hint of liquorice. The palate is supple and elegant, showing a "crunchy" red fruit character balanced by silky tannins and a fine mineral tension derived from the local limestone soils.

Labruyère-Prieur Sélection Bourgogne, Pinot Noir 3,450 | 42,073

Burgundy, France

A vibrant and pure bouquet of red cherries, wild strawberries, and a touch of peony. The palate is fresh and crunchy, characterized by its energetic fruit profile, fine-grained tannins, and a subtle limestone minerality that adds length and elegance to the finish.

Chateau de Laborde-Herve Kerlann Bourgogne
Cote D'Or Au Prunier, Pinot Noir 3,100 | 37,805

Burgundy, France

Expressive aromas of ripe wild strawberry and dark cherry layered with subtle notes of violet and earth. Medium-bodied and well-balanced, featuring velvety tannins and a persistent, savory mineral finish typical of the clay-limestone soils of the region.

Domaine Chanson Beaujolais Village, Gamay 1,750 | 21,341

Beaujolais, France

Bright ruby with purple hues, featuring intense fresh red berries, redcurrants, and subtle liquorice. It is supple, well-structured, and finishes with refreshing fruit.

PINOT NOIR

Fromm, Pinot Noir 2,400 | 29,268

Marlborough, New Zealand

Elegant and focused, featuring bright cherry, savory earthy undertones, silky tannins, and a long finish.

Temata Estate, Pinot Noir 2,000 | 24,390

Hawke's Bay, New Zealand

Radiant cherry-red with aromas of raspberry and spice, soft tannins, and a moreish finish.

Casa Marin Cartagena, Pinot Noir 1,300 | 15,854

San Antonio Valley, Chile

Enticing cherry, earthy undertones, smooth tannins, vibrant acidity, elegant Pinot Noir.

Vina Ventisquero Reserva, Pinot Noir 1,000 | 12,195

Casablanca Valley, Chile

Vibrant ruby red with aromas of fresh strawberries, raspberries, soft vanilla, and subtle oak spices.

BORDEAUX		bottle Marriott Bonvoy Points
Château Smith Haut-Lafitte		4,500 54,878
Pessac-Léognan, France
This wine is known for its incredible "smoky" complexity and seamless structure. It typically reveals a deep, opaque purple hue with a sophisticated nose of crushed blackberries, blueberries, and dark plums, underpinned by signature notes of gunflint, woodsmoke, and dried tobacco. The palate is rich and multi-layered, showing dense but ultra-silky tannins, a concentrated core of fruit, and vibrant mineral energy that carries through to a long, scorched-earth finish.
Château Siran		3,950 48,171
Margaux, France
A quintessential Margaux that balances power with high-toned elegance. The nose is highly aromatic, leaping from the glass with fresh violets, black raspberries, and crushed currants, layered with savory notes of graphite, tobacco leaf, and a touch of mint. On the palate, it is medium-to-full-bodied and silky, showing impressive concentration and "crunchy" red fruit acidity. The finish is persistent, often marked by a spicy, peppery kick and fine-grained, chalky tannins.
Duluc de Branaire-Ducru by Château Branaire-Ducru		3,900 47,561
Saint-Julien, France
True to the Saint-Julien style, this wine is remarkably balanced and elegant. It offers a fragrant bouquet of ripe red cherries, blackberries, and a distinctive note of dark chocolate and exotic spices. On the palate, it is medium-bodied and supple, featuring velvety tannins and bright acidity that provides a sense of lift. The finish is clean, with lingering notes of cedar and tobacco leaf.
Frank Phelan by Château Phélan Ségur		3,650 44,512
Saint-Estèphe, France
Classic Saint-Estèphe character with a refined edge. It opens with intense aromas of ripe blackberries, cassis, and dark plums, interwoven with signature notes of pencil shavings, cedar, and a hint of tobacco. The palate is medium-to-full-bodied, showing excellent concentration and a structured yet supple mouthfeel. It finishes with stony minerality and fine, well-integrated tannins.
Château Grange-Neuve		3,150 38,415
Pomerol, France
This wine is characterized by its plush, seductive texture and rich aromatics. It opens with an intense bouquet of ripe plum, black cherry, and wild strawberry, often accented by notes of truffle, violets, and subtle sweet spice from French oak. On the palate, it is full-bodied and supple, featuring creamy tannins and a generous core of fruit. The finish is long and polished, with a lingering hint of cocoa and earthy minerals.
Château Cissac		1,750 21,341
Haut-Médoc, France
A classic, sturdy claret. It typically presents a deep garnet color with an assertive nose of blackcurrant (cassis), cedar, and tobacco leaf. On the palate, it is medium-to-full-bodied with a firm, muscular structure. Flavors of black cherry and plum are balanced by savory notes of graphite, leather, and a hint of spice. While a bit austere in its youth, it rewards patience with a long, earthy finish.
MERLOT
Jackson Family Murphy-Goode, Merlot		2,000 24,390
California, USA
Bold blackberry and black cherry flavors with notes of thyme, toasted oak, and smooth tannins.
Montes Alpha, Merlot		1,950 23,780
Colchagua Valley, Chile
Chilean classic featuring intense black cherry, chocolate, and tobacco notes with refined, velvety tannins.
Wolf Blass Yellow Label, Merlot		1,400 17,073
South Australia
Aromas of dark plum and cassis with oak spice; approachable, medium-bodied, and a smooth finish.
Beringer Founders' Estate, Merlot		1,150 14,024
California, USA
Plush black cherry and ripe plum flavors with a velvety texture and smooth, toasted oak finish.
Rawson's Retreat, Merlot		900 10,976
South Australia
Plum and black cherry flavors with subtle spice, smooth tannins, and a soft, approachable finish.
