ALMA ROBERTS

You fall, you rise, you make mistakes, you live, you learn.

You're human, not perfect.

You've been hurt, but you're alive.

Think of what a precious privilege it is to be alive-to breathe, to think, to enjoy, to chase the things you love.

*Sometimes there is sadness on our journey,
but there is also lots of beauty.*

We must keep putting one foot in front of the other even when we hurt, for we will never know what is waiting for us just around the bend.
