Lt Gen A Arun (Retd), PVSM, YSM, SM, VSM

Lt. Gen. Arun Ananthanarayan (Retd.) is one of India's distinguished leadership speakers, bringing nearly four decades of experience in leading complex organizations, shaping strategic initiatives, and making critical decisions in high-pressure environments. A former senior officer of the Indian Army, he retired in June 2024 after an illustrious career marked by operational excellence, strategic foresight, and transformational leadership.

Commissioned into the prestigious 8 Grenadiers Regiment in 1985, he held several of the Army's highest appointments, including Chief of Staff, South Western Command, Director General of Strategic Planning at Army Headquarters, and General Officer Commanding, Dakshin Bharat Area. Throughout his career, he led large, diverse teams, managed complex operations, and contributed significantly to India's defence preparedness and strategic planning.

His exceptional service has been recognized with some of the nation's highest military honours, including the Param Vishisht Seva Medal (PVSM), Yudh Seva Medal (YSM), Sena Medal (SM), Vishisht Seva Medal (VSM), and multiple Chief of Army Staff Commendations.

Today, Lt. Gen. Arun helps organizations navigate uncertainty by translating military leadership principles into practical business strategies. Having delivered close to 2000 leadership sessions to corporate leaders, public institutions, and professional bodies, he inspires audiences with powerful stories, practical frameworks, and actionable insights on strategic leadership, decision-making, high-performance teams, organizational transformation, communication, governance, and ethical leadership.

Combining authenticity, strategic depth, and executive presence, Lt. Gen. Arun is a sought-after keynote speaker for leadership summits, CXO forums, board retreats, strategy offsites, executive development programs, and premier academic institutions, empowering leaders to build resilient organizations and lead with clarity, purpose, and lasting impact.
