The Drip in the Sink

Look for these ending blends!

nd, nk, nt

Some words end with a blend of two consonants. Practice blending the two ending sounds smoothly. For example, hand should be /h/ /a/ /n/ /d/ not /h/ /a/ /n/ /uh/ /d/.

The Drip in the Sink

Just Right Reader, Inc.

Greg went to bed.

Drip! Drop! Drip!

Greg got up and went to see what was dripping.

"The sink has a drip.

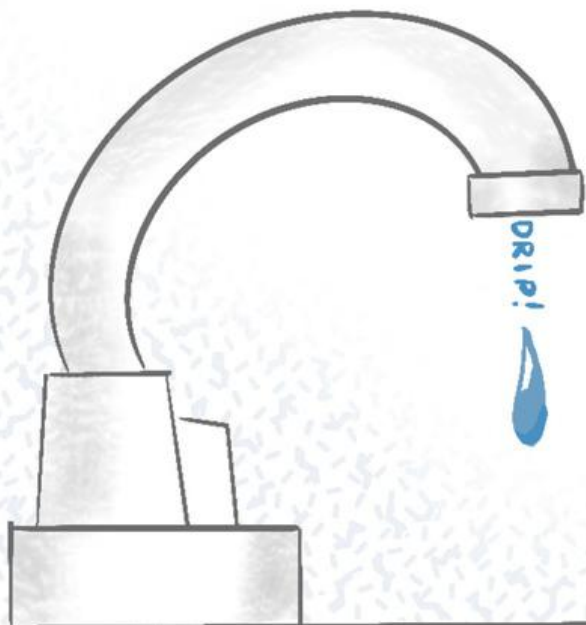

I didn't see it when

I got a drink," he said.

"I can't fix the sink."

Greg went to get Dad

to help.

Greg bent down and told Dad.

Dad winked and blinked
and then he got up.

"What is it?" said Dad.

"The sink has a drip,"

Greg said to Dad.

"I can't fix it," said Dad.

They went and got Mom.

"The sink has a drip,"

Greg said to Mom.

"I can fix that sink,"
said Mom.

"And you can lend me
a hand!"
