Our beautiful 32 bedroom hotel sits on a gently sloping hillside above Lake Windermere, one of the UK's most stunning spots in a UNESCO world heritage site. It is as gorgeous inside as out. Period details that deserve a place in a building with such a great history as ours, blend seamlessly with the stunning new contemporary design of our lounges and bars. Think of it as the set for your big day - in which you are the star.

Lindeth Howe was built as a summer holiday home for a wealthy mill owner in 1879 and was situated in a 28-acre estate.

The mill owner rented the house out to friends for holidays amongst them were the Potter family.

From 1902 to 1930, Beatrix Potter published her famous children's stories and for two of these stories, Timmy Tiptoes and Pigling Bland, she illustrated them whilst staying at Lindeth Howe. We have copies of some correspondence from this period and have permission to use a copy of her handwriting when she inscribed Lindeth Howe as our logo.

In 1915, after the death of her father, Beatrix Potter bought Lindeth Howe for her mother, Helen Potter to live in. Beatrix had fallen in love with the property during the times she had stayed and notified her mother when the sale was announced. At this time Beatrix lived in Hill Top Farm in Near Sawrey. After the death of her mother, Beatrix sold the house to the Doxford family in 1933. The house was then owned by two other families the Postlethwaites and the Baxters, they sold it then in 1998, to us, and here we remain.

We invite you to visit and find out for yourself what is quite so special about this stunning hotel. Will the AA rosette cooking steal your heart? Or, will the incredible backdrop for photos seal the deal? It's these elements, plus many others, that make it your perfect destination.

Our management team will be with you every step of the way to make sure you have the perfect day, in the perfect venue with - most importantly - the perfect partner!

Throughout this brochure, we've aimed to show you a little of what we have to offer, but remember, everything will be tailored around you, and this is just a taste of what we can create. So we welcome you to join us for a cup of tea and some homemade shortbread and a look around the hotel to find out how Lindeth Howe can become part of your wedding story.
