Summer Associates and Current Associates Share Their Stories

"I chose Vinson & Elkins because...the work is high-caliber and the lawyers are high-quality, both as professionals and as people."

"Partners take the time to train associates... and also advocate for associates to get the experience that will help them to develop, both with clients and internally."

"Matters are leanly staffed, which usually results in associates being given stretch assignments where they can learn a lot."

Our Strategy for Your Success Is Simple

We hire the best law students and lawyers to do challenging and meaningful work, support the development of their practices and careers, build strong relationships with our clients and communities, and reward our lawyers for their commitment to excellence.

“The work is fascinating!”

“I genuinely enjoy the people I work with, and I feel lucky to work at a place where people are supportive of one another (from associates to partners).”

“Everyone is really supportive, and partners do keep an eye on your workload.”

On the pro bono side, “We do some really great work here.”

Gain the Best Experience Possible

Vinson & Elkins has provided deep legal experience in handling complex transactions, investments, projects, and disputes worldwide for more than 100 years. Today, V&E is a top-tier firm and trusted advisor serving sophisticated clients in banking/finance, infrastructure, technology, real estate, renewable energy, and transportation. We have a reputation for a culture built on collaboration and inclusion. With more than 700 lawyers working across 12 offices, the firm is known for empowering exceptional careers, offering early opportunities for hands-on client involvement, providing competitive compensation and benefits, and giving back to our communities.

Assignments for summer associates provide insight into what work is like as an associate. Summer experiences include taking on research projects, drafting documents, participating in internal strategy discussions with attorneys working on deals and cases, joining calls with clients and opposing counsel, attending depositions or meetings with clients, and giving back to our communities.
