Dunny is being ridden by a 79 year old guy. Dunny has drug calves at brandings, sorted, doctored cows in the pasture, push cows through the tub and hold them in the alley with his chest. My 10 year old nephew wanted to learn how to ride 4 years ago. This horse was his teacher. Stands next to fence or bank for mounting and stays till asked to move out. When saddling only pull cinch tight enough to get on. Any tighter he walks off tight. Stands 14.3, just the right size for most people. He is an easy traveling horse. Bred by Dave Hermanson, Jesse comes with the kind of foundation and quality you can count on. He's very quiet and dependable to ride outside, making him a true partner in all kinds of terrain and ranch work. Jesse is smooth-strided, sure-footed, and has an easy, responsive handle that makes him a pleasure to ride day in and day out. If you're looking for a seasoned, good-minded ranch gelding that's built to last and bred to work, Jesse is the real deal. VIDEO: <https://youtu.be/8W3hgopabyk> FMI: 307-423-1969. Coggins.

NOTES: Here's your chance to own a real winner in the barrel pen with the bloodlines to back him up! King is a 9 year old gelding by Epic Leader out of an own daughter of Dashing Val who was a phenomenal barrel horse in her own right. King filled my WPRRA permit, has 2024 WPRRA pro rodeo earnings, 2024 Colorado Professional Rodeo Association earnings, and countless 1D jackpot earnings with limited hauling due to me having young kids. Only selling him because my time restraints are increasing with my kids sports obligations. King is super fun to run, and also super fun to ride both inside the arena and out. He would get along great with anyone who is looking for more of a free-runner, and would be a great fit for high school or college rodeo. He's started roping on the calf-tracker and it wouldn't take much at all to get him moved over to live cattle. He's great to haul, easy to shoe and handles everything you show him like a champ. Check out his video and don't hesitate to reach out with questions. VIDEO: https://youtu.be/keA_Z2pfklc?si=P8mT5no-W6jDt71a FMI: 509-528-8705. Coggins.

NOTES: Smooch is a well put together, kind, smart, and athletic filly. She's as pretty bay roan as you can make one with just enough white to set her off. She leads, loads, bathes, and is good with her feet, 6-panel negative. Smooch's dam is my main mount and has earnings of nearly $3,000 in Ranch Rodeo's and has helped earn me top hand twice last year. She has also been used as a pickup horse and shagged bulls. Metallic Shine has proven himself as a producer as far as versatile and easy to train. 'Born Broke' as they say! All of them are cowy and have a strong work ethic, but TONS of personality; you'll never lack entertainment around any of them. Smooch was born with some birth defects in her knees; an unfortunate effect of Mustard Weed Toxicity in the womb. She underwent corrective surgery at 4 months old so there are small scars on both knees. Due to this she sells as broodmare sound, she may very well be sound to ride eventually but I am unable to guarantee that at this point. I have x-rays of her knees before, during, and after her operation if interested. I would anticipate this filly maturing to at least 15.2. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 406-720-0734. Coggins.

NOTES: Gotta Spook Shine (Captain Stubbing) is a sweet chestnut gelding with a flaxen mane and tail. NRHA license pending under #672907. He is 6 panel negative. Selling as a prospect horse for any discipline. He is a started horse with a great foundation. Knows his ground work fundamental lessons. W/T/L and knows his gaits and lead departures. Doing great at yielding the hind quarters and fore quarters. We took him out to the indoor mountain trail course on his 3rd ride out. He has been to the beach and trails. Would be great for someone wanting to finish him in their specialized discipline. He also has a pretty good started spin and sliding stop. He is gentle enough for anyone to ride. Would be great for someone that wants to take their time and learn how to finish a horse. He really just wants to be your buddy. Never bucked or done anything stupid. Would make a great liberty horse or a youth 4-H horse. Big smooth trot. Covers country easily. No maintenance. 100% sound. No Cribbing. Loads, bathes, great for farrier. NOTES: One-of-a-Kind Pedigree. Sired by On A Gator (Dash Ta Fame x On A Bunny), who unfortunately passed away in June 2025, making her one of the last offspring you'll ever see from this proven bloodline. On A Gator is a full brother to standout performers Lions Share Of The Fame, Gun Battle, and FM Radio, solidifying his legacy in both racing and barrel horse pedigrees. Dash Ta Fame remains the #1 all-time leading barrel racing sire, while On A Bunny contributes depth and versatility, carrying performance genetics from Dash For Cash and Bunny Bid. Her dam, Jae Bar Sapphire, adds serious cow sense and versatility through Jae Bar Little Steve, Little King Freckles, and Jae Bar Ashlee—all part of the legendary Jae Bar program, known for producing top-tier ranch and cow horses with athleticism and trainability. Terra Gator was started by us and is currently in training. She just attended her first team roping jackpot and handled it with confidence. She's riding around soft, responsive, and correct, with a natural feel and eagerness to work. She takes both leads with ease and stops hard and backs up straight. Terra turns around with cadence and style and has started flying lead changes naturally and willingly. We use her to pony colts, and she handles the job with maturity. She crosses water, bridges, and rough terrain with no hesitation and will go anywhere you point her. She's brave, steady, and never spooky, and she's always been that way. From day one, she's been easy to start, eager to learn, and extremely trainable. Combine that with her power, talent, and grit, and she's got everything you need to go far in barrels, roping, cow horse, or as an all-around ranch horse. NOTES: 14.2 H, Mav is 6 panel negative, color tested: e/e, A/a, N/Cr - Versatile, Stout and Gentle. Hidden gem who had a late start in life. Mav has a pedigree that will compliment any breeding program. A grandson of both Frenchmans Guy and Dash Ta Fame who need no introduction. His sire Frenchin Ta Fame was also a money earner (over 6k) with a very limited entries due to a life ending injury - Placing 7th Br: WPRA World Finals 11/08, 21st BR:BFA World Champion Futurity 12/07, 4th Br:LG Pro Classic Futurity 2/08 just to name a few. (equi stats report available). Mav hand and pasture breeds, is very easy to handle and a gentlemen to the mares. He lives in a herd setting with multiple geldings, we haul/tie him alongside mares and geldings alike- he has exceptional ground manners. Mav can be ridden alone or in a group, loves trail rides, has been entered and placed in local barrel jackpots, used for sorting and was awesome despite his rider having no idea what she was doing. Hauled out for O-mok-see play dates, used in horse camps/lesson program with intermediate riders. He has buttons so not suitable for beginners. Mav's main handler is a handy teen who unfortunately is not 18 making it difficult to enter him into larger races. With a handful of foals on the ground his offspring look promising all showing great athleticism, stout builds and willingness to work -Again he was a late start not being touched from age 2-10 - YES 8 years living feral is correct and now one of the gentlest stallions I have ever been around. Come and meet him in person as words cannot describe how gentle this boy is. We are available to answer any questions, live video chat, or schedule an in-person meeting. Small scar left hind foot, signs of mild arthritis in left hock - No maintenance currently. PPE welcome at buyers' expense prior to sale. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 406-660-1582. Coggins.

I've owned Vic since she was five, she will work her butt off for you in the arena or outside on the ranch. Been everywhere from the mountains to the desert. Hauled and headed on at multiple jackpots, super easy to rope on leaves flat scores good. Has been ran through a rope barrier but not a lot. Will fit most #4 headers #12 roping or lower horse in my option. Can be heeled on but I feel she fits the heading side. Has always been booted on all four legs in the arena but knows how to handle herself outside. Has been used to tag, brand, and doctor calves and roped cows and bulls she's not afraid of hard days work but not a huge motor horse will just walk off from the trailer or hit a high trot and go cover some country. She has raised 3 foals and is one heck of a good mother, Freckles Playboy, Teninolenla Badger are on her papers. Can be watchy if put in an uncomfortable situation but really wants to please, you treat her kind she will do the same. She has small scars on her back hocks, she's had them ever since I bought her 11 years ago. Other than that, she will vet sound with no other marks. Up to date on vaccinations easy to shoe and haul. She is an excellent trail/ranch horse that you can haul to a jackpot and have chance to win. VIDEO: https://youtu.be/EhZ4_y6TkOU?si=tWiY4QeBtE5JCh-i FMI: 208-731-7924. Coggins.

Beau is the whole package. Chrome, athletic, willing, and a gentleman on the ground. He has been used as a ranch horse - roped off of, doctored calves, moved cows far and wide, and had some serious miles put on him - alone and with other horses. He has also worked extensively in the arena and can stop in an instant, sidepass, spin, flying lead changes, lopes like a rocking horse, collected trot for days with his nose to the ground, has an extended trot to cover some ground. He's a beautiful mover. He has great feet - has been barefoot and with a full set of shoes, stands tied and hauls in a stock trailer, small trailer, open trailer with no issues. He is a steady, multi-talented mount, he has been ridden by riders of different skill levels and skill sets - though not a kids or beginner horse. Beau has worked in all kinds of weather, day or night. He rides out alone. He crosses water, opens gates, works flags, and sorts cows. He has been around tarps, flags, atv's, working dogs, wildlife. He gets along in a herd - not at the top or bottom, stands quietly tied or to be mounted. He is easy to catch, shoe, and load. He is ready for whatever task you have in store for him and any direction you want to take him. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 406-201-0205. Coggins.

Teacup
2012 Grade Gray Mare
Justyce Small Flemingsburg, KY

14.2 hands. When I think of teacup 3 words pop into my mind, honest, reliable, and trustworthy. Teacup is the kind of horse you want to ride, whether it be 100° or -8° it doesn't bug you to saddle and ride, because she's just that good! Teacup is not your typical mare, quite honestly I believe she identifies as a gelding, she is happy to see you, happy to be with other horses, and just happy all the time! Teacup stands to be saddled, bridled, tacked, she loads with ease and is good in a stall or turned out. Teacup stays broke with time off and saddles up gentle no matter the weather, or time she's been standing. Are you wanting a pint sized horse that's stout enough to carry just about anyone? Something easy to get on and off of on the trails? Then teacup is your gal, although she is small, she's mighty and can keep up with the big horses or can slow it down and drop your reins and she will ride like a snail. In the arena Teacup will walk trot lope circles, she pivots and is soft in her face and sides, she has a nice light neck rein and moves off your legs as well. We've used Teacup a lot outdoors, we check momma cows on her daily, we use her to pen back at the stockyards, and she's my go to horse to pony colts off of, she's zero drama and no fuss. Teacup has seen lots of outside miles and nothing fazes her, she crosses anything asked, and is traffic safe as well. There's not a hill too steep or a creek too deep for Teacup. One thing I really like about Teacup is you can make mistakes on her and she just takes them in a stride, halter breaking and ponying colts isn't always ideal, and I've put Teacup in alot of "messes" she always picks up the slack and gets me out of trouble with ease. Not only can you make mistakes, you can ride her and never have to worry, I ride a lot of young horses and stepping on Teacup is like a breath of fresh air, she's always sane and reasonable about everything asked of her. I've given some lessons off of teacup and she adapts and adj. Also no big deal, Teacup got ya! If you're wanting a horse with a ton of heart, sense, and a good head on her shoulders than I suggest you consider Teacup, she's guaranteed to steal your heart in many ways! VIDEO: Contact Seller. Bayman has been there and done that. I've had him since he was 6 and I've used him for everything on the ranch. He's great to rope and doctor on outside, I've won ranch rodeos on him. I have branded thousands of calves on him and gathered big country, he definitely has more go than whoa. He does have knots on his knees that he has had for about 5-6 years now but has never taken a lame step. I still use him long days and don't think anything of it. He also has a small scar above his back hoof from wire when he was a colt, ever since then he is watchy about the rope around his legs. if he gets wrapped up he won't buck but you can tell he doesn't like it. Don't let his age fool you, he still has a ton of life and is a great ranch horse or trail horse. VIDEO: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mr_m6zGJKzM FMI: 775-426-8620. Coggins.

2 yrs ago he had 7 months of being introduced to cutting. This spring he was rode on a ranch for 3 weeks checking cows and calves and roped off of some. The month of July he had 30 days riding some in the hills and arena and a little roping. He is good to bathe, trim/shoe, and trailer. Laid back easy going, in your pocket, first one to meet you at the gate type of horse. VIDEO: Contact Seller. FMI: 208-852-6528. Coggins.
