Nineteen Hundred

and Sixty-Seven

Dedication

Mr. James McGuire, Principal

To the man who has a keen interest in every student of Cherokee School, we respectfully dedicate the 1967 Yearbook. He meets all situations with kindness and understanding, seeking always the best for the student and the school. Mr. McGuire taught Science in Cherokee Jr. High before becoming Principal in 1963.

*Best Wishes
James McGuire*

Farewell Mrs. Harvey

Mrs. Harvey

Mrs. Harvey will retire this spring after teaching Speech for fifteen years in Cherokee School. She has been a "Favorite Teacher" of many students and will be missed very much. When the Staff reports for duty in September, they will feel a loss and the first day of school will not be the same—because—"we've grown accustomed to your face".

We are happy for you Mrs. Harvey and hope you will enjoy your retirement years. Travel far and wide, sleep late, do all the things you've never had time for, but DON'T FORGET to come back to visit your friends at Cherokee.
