Over the years you and your friends have been ordered about in small ways by signs. You have been asked to follow the straight and narrow path, to walk along the dotted line, to not fold, spindle, or mutilate. The perfect road has always been shown to you and only in your own small way have you finally decided to follow your heart. You have been almost mesmerized by a barrage of messages telling, asking, pleading, and ordering you to do what is supposed to be done. Now perhaps it is time to consider not the words on the many signs, but a feeling in your heart, a sign in the eyes of your soul to read on, to follow the dictates of a whispering voice within your heart which keeps telling you to "watch your step!"

Biggest Joke of the Year or
A Student Council Meeting
A Play in One Scene

Scene: Seldom

Time: About that time.

Characters: Student Council members off stage.

Sanders: "The Secretary will call roll."

Myers: "Sanders."

Sanders: "Here."

Myers: "Myers."

Myers: "Here."

Sanders: "Well I guess we're all here, who do you have a date with tonight, Chris?"

Myers: "Gary, of course."

Sanders: "Of course, of course. Ho hum! I guess that will be all for tonight."

Myers: "I move we adjourn. I also second the motion."

Sanders: "Meeting is adjourned. I wonder how the school would get along without the Student Council?"

10:15-11:15. Wednesday and Thursday deadlines. Mr. Scott's room 231. Stories, columns, editorials, features, disc dialogues, and movie reviews. That's what "J" class did all year, writing good and bad copy but evidently good enough to be chosen STAFF OF THE YEAR of all the Tulsa Public High Schools that subjected material to School Life. "The Scot staff had more copy printed than the next two schools combined. They sent in a great deal of quality material and they were always on time." That was the statement that appeared in the last issue of School Life which will be discontinued next year. As Mr. Scott, our fearless leader would say, "Write On!"
