

CAEJOSE 2023

ACROSS SPACE AND TIME

A VIRTUAL ZINE

Curated by Gingerreggg

PREFACE

This project is an exhibition of creativity in the Caejose community. The zine -titled Across Space and Time- was an open-ended prompt so artists could explore the Caejose dynamic through canonical moments, or snapshots from a distant universe.

Artists were encouraged to add their own personal twist to the pairing, emphasizing the power of perspective and diversity. The community has a tradition of celebrating Joseph and Caesar each year, and for 2023, the celebration took form of this zine.

This passion project was open to everyone who wanted to participate, and ended up with seventeen different artists and twenty-two works altogether- each with its own twist to Caejose!

We hope you enjoy this zine; all the artists' social media pages are linked so you can continue to support their future creative endeavors.

Let's take a step into the Caejose Multiverse!

“...I’m not a full time artist and this is my first time submitting my drawings. Hope that you guys like it.”

A Vampire and His... Silly Friend

1985. Joseph Joestar and his friends were exploring an ‘abandoned’ mansion until he got lost. After walking for a while he fell down on accidentally opened a door of one of the many bedrooms on the place. Inside the room was Caesar Zeppeli; a vampire and original owner of the mansion.

“ . . . I really love to draw Caejose stuff in my cartoony style c: ”

“... Autistic nonbinary artist studying to be a mortician. Maybe a little obsessed with Jojo’s Bizarre Adventure. Only just a little, though. Please ignore the shelf full of Jojo stuff. They are only a little obsessed, after all.”

Our Secret Honeymoon

The pictures are about an AU where Caesar lives and instead of Joseph marrying Suzie, he married Caesar and as they intentionally kept it “secret” before going to NYC and meet the others they had a secret honeymoon in Venice; they took a picture to remember the moment and that’s what, years later and a bit dirty they show that pic to a very young Jotaro, who was asking about the bizarre stories of his grandpas (Holly is biologically Suzie and Joseph’s daughter. Suzie offered herself to be a kind of “surrogate mother” since her friends wanted to take the step of having children, but couldn’t legally adopt, so she did her friends the favor). Someday I should write a fic about this...

Cola & Cigarettes

This piece is inspired by my work Cola & Cigarettes, a modern high school AU.

“... Meagan is long time reader, writer, and fangirl. She's loved to write, act, and tell stories as long as she can remember and is set to graduate college soon with a creative writing degree.

She's written many other short stories and fanfiction. She dreams of publishing a fantasy novel she's been working on and hopes that you all enjoy her work and want to read more!”

“Back In Time”

After defeating Dio, Jotaro decides he wants to save Kakyojin and tries to reverse time-only to send Joseph back in time by accident. Back to the day that Caesar met his end. Determined to not let the man he loves die again- he decides to stop him from going into that hotel. But can he?

“ . . . I wasn't much of an artist when I got into Jojo, and to be honest I'm still not sure I'm really able to call myself that. My first-run in with CaeJose was during a horrible breakup that coincided with a time when my life was falling apart, and the support towards my work honestly kept me afloat. . .albeit somewhere at the bottom of a bottle.

It's been a long time since then, and I have my partner to thank for keeping me afloat during some of the best AND the worst times of my life. I've deleted and remade my accounts far too many times now to count, but from mattart to dailyjo2eph, to bwappleart to brimslop...thank you. The support has been overwhelming regardless of how unpopular I consider myself to be. I could not do any of this without all of you.”

The Styx

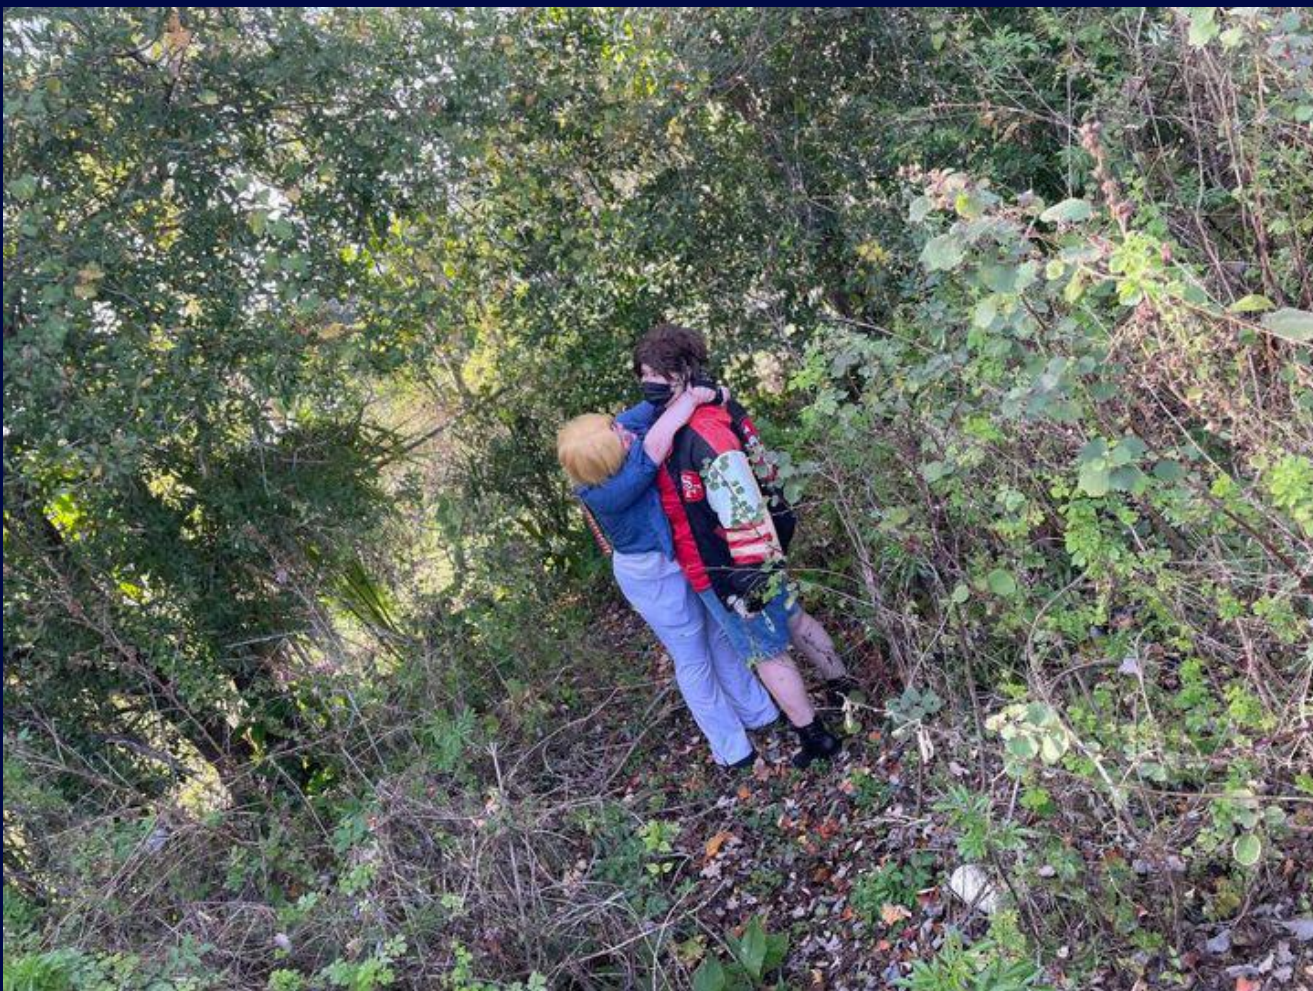

Took a little bit of inspiration from the painting “Ophelia” by Sir John Everett Millais and then listened to too much Fleetwood Mac. The rest is history, I suppose.

“... A pair of best friends who started cosplaying together for fun, both 15, closet cosplayers, and not the best wig stylers.”

Cosplay of a Caejose modern high School AU; Joseph is in the school's football game, Caesar is his cheerleader! They're hanging out at the park together before the big game.

“... The meowtism is so strong with me :-3c ”

Cowboy Tendency

I'm a great enjoyer of all things western and “cowboy-y”, and thus love to create designs and AU concepts that relate to that! Live love yeehaw western Caesar and Joseph!

“...I’m a passionate digital fanartist with a focus in character design and storytelling. Since childhood, I’ve loved making AUs with elements of fantasy, sci-fi, and nostalgia. Since 2020, I’ve been obsessed with Caejose; they’ve been the focus of my stories and designs for over three years. From drawing to writing, these two characters have allowed me to spread my wings and pursue new avenues of artistic and gender expression I have never known!”

These are Sun Joseph and Moon Caesar’s most extravagant outfits, typically worn when the entire Solar System court congregates. The halos around Joseph’s head represent each planet in his orbit, and also marks him as the leader of the solar system. He holds Caesar’s staff, which has a lunar clock in its sphere.

Caesar and Joseph have, in their short time together have been my personal epitome of romance.

Caesar's death was emotionally brutal, as though an inherent cog in the universe had been torn out and replaced with tears and screaming and an aching grief. The lyrics, both in the artwork and in the title, are from 'Misanthropologist' by Will Wood.

While the entire song is about a different relationship dynamic than CaeJose, the lyrics I chose show their dedication and adoration for each other. I included different parts of Battle Tendency, such as the last scene of its opening, the Red Stone of Aja, and Caesar's last Hamon in keeping with the theme of "Time and Space".

While brief, the time Caesar and Joseph had together was perfect, and I believe they could've had everything they ever wanted as long as they had each other.

A SPECIAL THANKS

Thank you to all the artists and writers that participated in this project- without you, this zine wouldn't exist!

Also a special thanks to artist MOONDOON who helped develop and streamline the zine's concept.

And, of course, thank you to everyone who spread the word and supported these artists through sharing and reading this zine!
