Theatre

Now is the time to seize the opportunity to act, write, direct, and work behind the scenes in the CWC Theatre Department program. Because nobody puts creativity in a corner, you'll exercise your artistic talents in an encouraging environment where passion meets purpose. Study theory and technique to refine the intricate craft of acting and other innovative areas—defying gravity and expectations. Explore acting, directing, writing, and technical theater as you develop the versatility needed to say, "I can do that!"

Receive the individual attention required to grow in this complex art form and build a foundation for future creative works. Focus on artistic development and enhance collaboration, confidence, and self-exploration—because the world is wide enough for all kinds of stories. Develop communication, problem-solving, and leadership skills that are applicable on and off the stage. This dynamic two-year degree is designed to prepare you for professional opportunities in and beyond the theatrical realm—no day but today to begin your journey.
