France

France is a country in Europe. It is not very far from the UK. Many people go to France for fun, food, and warm weather. France has big cities, small towns, rivers, and mountains.

Where Is France?

France is across the sea from the south of England. You can get there by car, train, boat, or plane. The capital city of France is Paris. Paris is in the north of the country.

Speaking French

People in France speak French.

Here are some easy French words you can try:

Bonjour (bon-zhoor) – Hello

Merci (mer-see) – Thank you

Au revoir (oh ruh-vwar) – Goodbye

S'il vous plaît (seel-voo-play) – Please

Oui (wee) – Yes

Non(non) – No

French can sound different from English, but it is fun to try. Many people in France are happy when visitors use even a few small French words.

The French Flag

The French flag has three colours: blue, white, and red. The colours are in straight lines from top to bottom. The flag is easy to spot at schools, on buildings, and at big events.

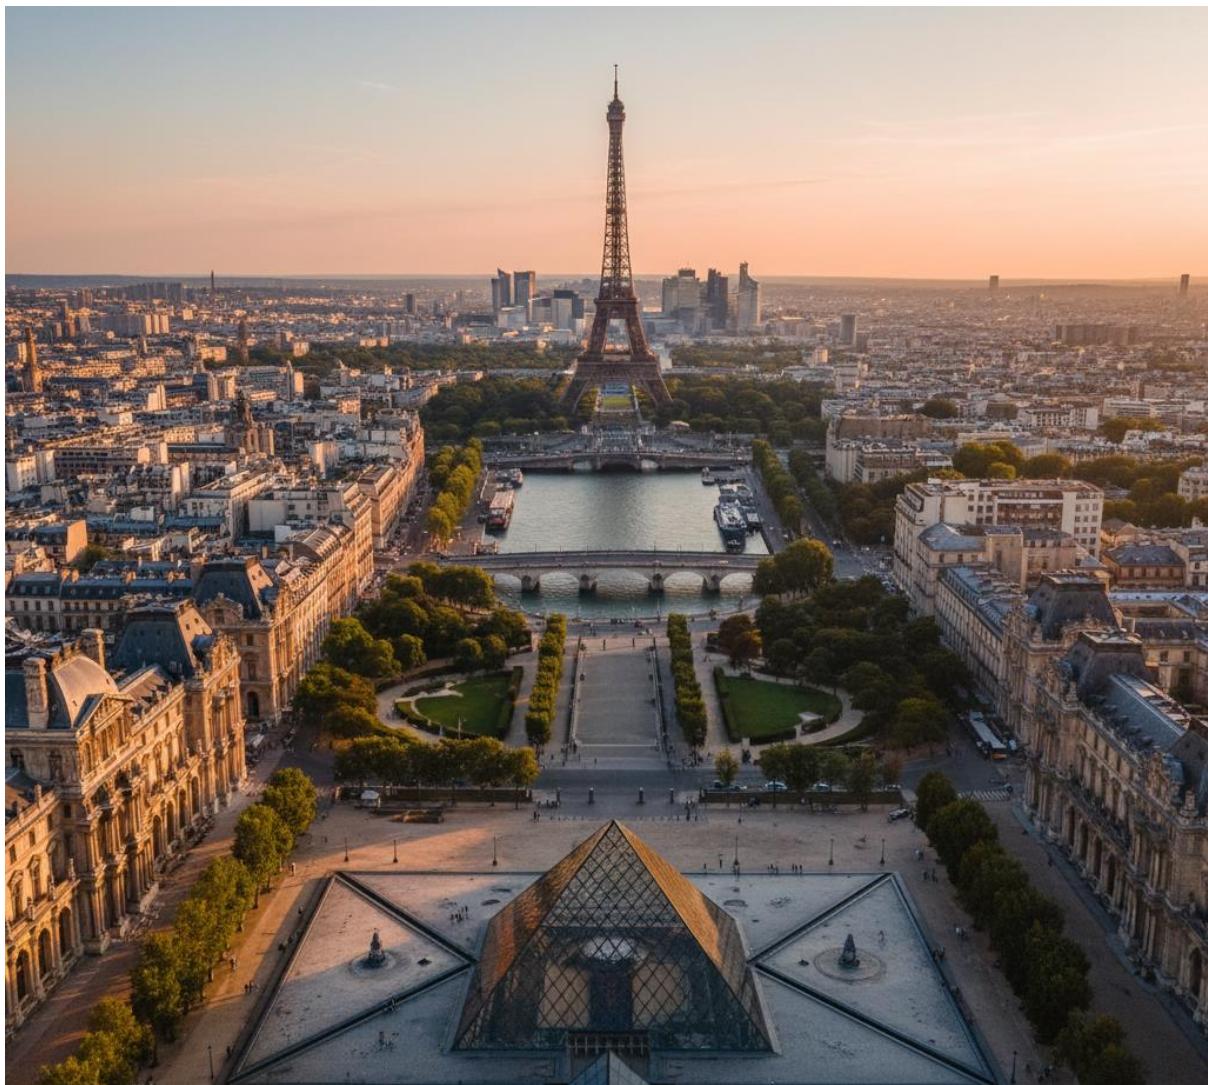

Weather in France

France can be warm in the summer and cold in the winter. The south of France is usually hotter than the north. Many people like to visit because the weather can be very sunny.

Food in France

France is famous for its food. People enjoy bread, cheese, fruit, fish, and cakes. A long, thin loaf of bread called a baguette is very popular. Many visitors love French food.

Famous Places

France has many famous places. The Eiffel Tower in Paris is the most well-known. There is also the Louvre Museum, which holds very old and special art. Other places include parks, rivers, and old buildings.

The Eiffel Tower

The Eiffel Tower is very tall. People can go up inside it. From the top, you can see far across Paris. At night the tower shines with bright lights.

Sports in France

People in France enjoy many sports. Football is the most popular. France has a strong national team. The Tour de France, a long bike race, is one of the most famous races in the world.

School in France

Children in France go to school like children in the UK. They learn maths, reading, writing, science, and other subjects. They often have a long lunch break in the middle of the day.

Animals in France

In France you can see many animals. On farms there are cows, sheep, pigs, and chickens. In the wild there are wolves, deer, and many types of birds. In the sea around France you can find dolphins and fish.

Why People Visit France

People visit France for many reasons. Some go for the food. Others like the weather or the beaches. Many go to see the Eiffel Tower or to learn about history. France is a fun and interesting place to explore.
