"I have been photographing women for 2 years, before that I was a nature photographer. The fleetingness of the moment makes it worth capturing. You could say I'm just starting out, but I'm definitely doing what I love."

ESME SAINT JAMES

"My name is Esme Saint James. I have a very diverse background with two degrees. Modeling was never something I saw myself doing, but my friend asked if I could shoot with her and I was bit by the bug so to speak. I love meeting the new people who have come into my life and while my experience in modeling is growing, I am still fairly new to it. I am a very creative person who loves to read and get new ideas for various things in life. When I watch television, I am usually watching the Investigation Discovery channel or documentaries, they fascinate me. Here is just a bit about who I am and how I started modeling. ~Esme"
