The Casual Workspace

Workspaces need to be versatile, mobile and flexible. We make designs that deliver separation. Where people can come together to collaborate as well as for private contemplation, enhancing the open plan office.

We've been in the roofed den business now for over a decade, providing spaces with furniture that encourages collaboration and independent contemplation.

Roofe   ens

The Bob collection offers comfort and privacy in beautifully upholstered walls. The design, based on mobile devices, utilises large flat panels and soft rounded corners which not only look great but reduce and absorb sound.

The Bea collection utilises simple clean lines and deep soft cushions to create an extremely comfortable and homely range of dens. The pitched roof gives Bea height adding to the office landscape.

The Bea Collection

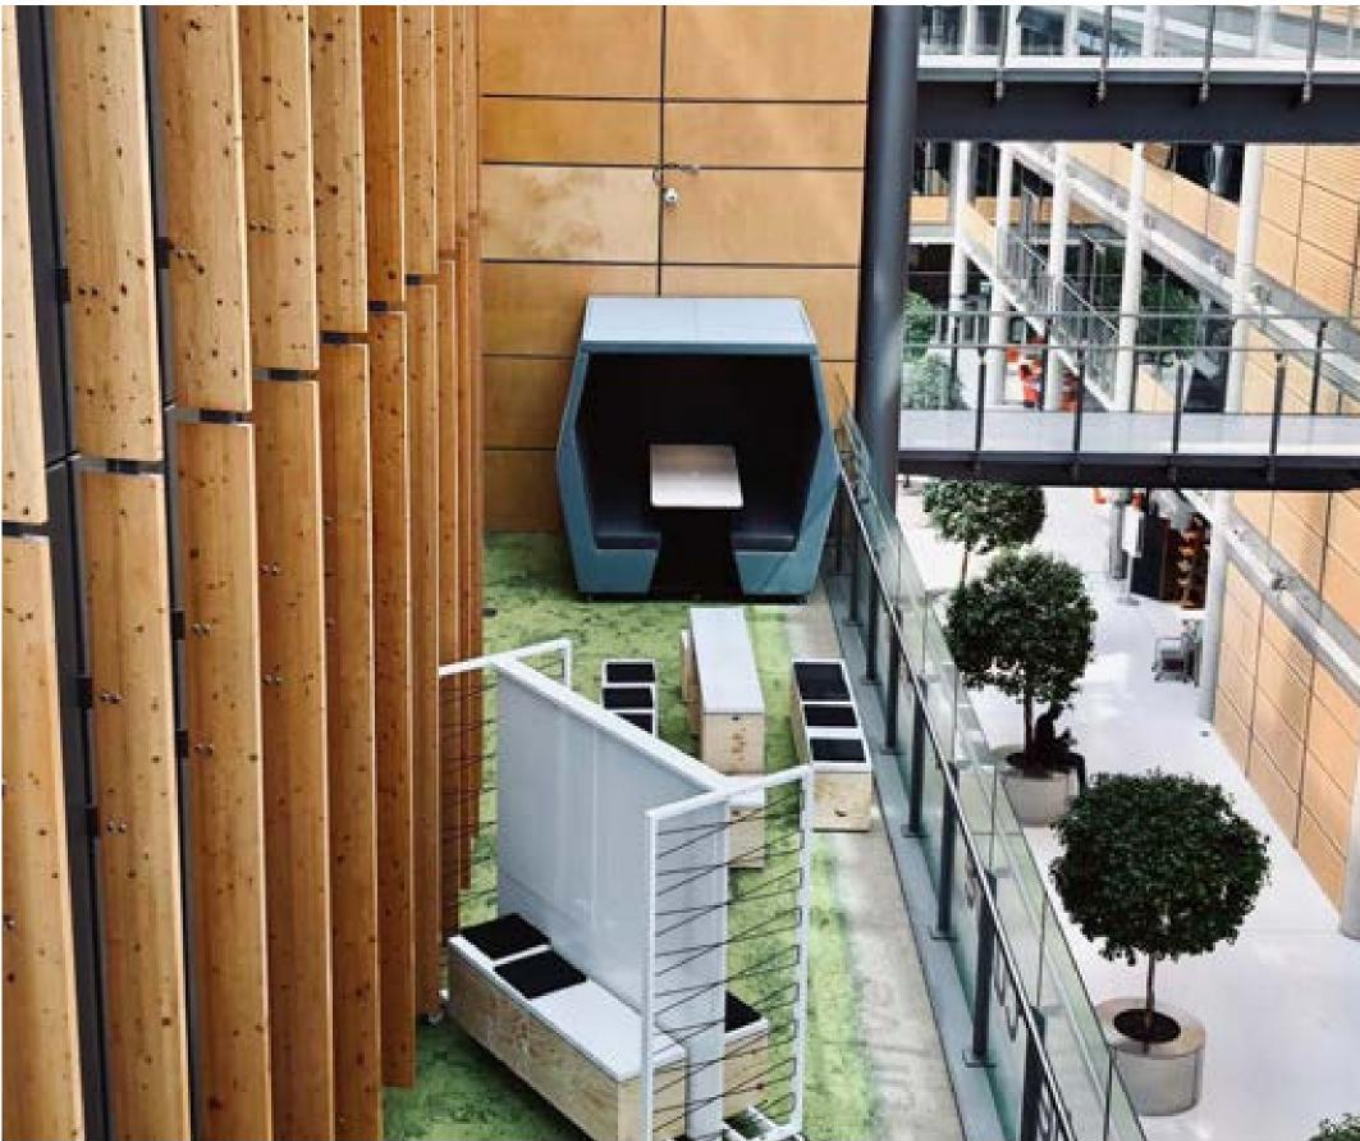

We understand the adaptable work space, therefore our dens are available on castors so if your space moves about so do the dens, without you doing your back in.

Shaping Environments

We understand our furniture is a puzzle piece within a multi functioning environment. Our furniture has been designed with this in mind.

Each collection is available in many guises to shape the way an environment is utilised. Including the upholstery which can be heavily customised to ensure the colours and finishes communicate with the whole space.

Optional Extras

Now you've been introduced to the designs in the roofed den collection you can customise it to suit how you need it to function.

Glass is available on one or both sides to dampen sound and add further privacy to the dens.

Available with chrome or matt black fixtures

We use fabrics that have been woven all across Europe. But where we can, we prefer to source as locally as possible.

One of our main suppliers weaves most of their fabric in Yorkshire – whose mills, at their peak, were the finest in the world. Although the mills may not be there anymore, the quality and care for the process still exists.

Choosing Fabrics:

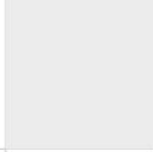

When it comes to choosing fabrics the choice can be slightly overwhelming. If you're uncertain on a fabric choice speak with us! We can advise on which types of fabrics work best for certain products and their function, as well as the upholstery finish.

We do advise seeing fabric samples in real life, you can order samples straight from the supplier or come visit us in our showroom to see samples and a hand full of fabrics in use on our furniture.

Another great way to visualise fabrics and colour is to utilise our rendering service. Our designers will create a rendered image of your chosen product with the fabric choices to help you visualise the final product.
