

ALMA ROBERTS
DANCING 'TIL DAWN

almaroberts.com

"I have just completed my very first decade as a visual artist and I am astounded by the pace, the rhythm, and the harmony of this journey. The art that I am creating has been received warmly by a growing number of collectors, curators, and viewers, and has provided me with great joy and meaning. It is my intent to continue painting my way through the rest of my life with unfettered passion and purpose. I hope you'll stay with me for this ride."

*Thank you,
Alma Roberts*
