

A Bed of Their Own

A personal mission to help veterans feel at home again.

As the proud wife of a retired Army veteran, I've seen firsthand the sacrifice, resilience, and quiet strength that define our military families.

As a real estate professional, I also know that home is more than walls and a roof—it's safety, comfort, dignity, and a place to begin again.

With every closing I celebrate, I'm committed to sponsoring a Welcome Home Kit for a veteran transitioning into permanent housing through Vets Returning Home.

EACH WELCOME HOME KIT MAY INCLUDE

Pillow, sheet set & blanket

Basic toiletries + towel set

Kitchen essentials

Cleaning supplies

These aren't just items—they're tools of stability, comfort, and a fresh start. With every home I help someone find, another hero gets a bed of their own.
