S/F 2026 COLLECTION
RESIDENTIAL LOOKBOOK

WELCOME HOME

As we welcome the Summer/Fall 2026 season, we invite you into our new collection shaped by the beauty of contrast; where relaxed sophistication meets thoughtful craftsmanship, and timeless forms are reimagined through a modern lens.

Throughout these pages, you'll discover a palette inspired by nature's quiet luxuries: warm chestnut and smoked umber woods, sun-washed neutrals, soft mineral hues, blush accents, and rich earth tones that create a sense of effortless comfort. Sculptural silhouettes, graceful curves, and tailored details bring a fresh softness to every room, while layered textures, including performance fabrics, natural oak, parchment shagreen and live-edge wood add depth and character.

There is an unmistakable warmth woven throughout the collection, balanced by refined finishes, brushed brass accents, and materials that feel both elevated and inviting. You'll see spaces that celebrate organic modernism, heritage influences, and moments of playful romance, each designed to feel collected rather than curated. Whether through a dramatic statement piece or a subtle decorative detail, every introduction is intended to bring personality, comfort, and enduring style into the home.

We hope this collection inspires you to create interiors that feel welcoming, beautifully layered, and uniquely your own for the seasons ahead.

Warmly,

R. Dixon Mitchell

STEWART COLLECTION

Stewart brings together the timeless character of an English country house with the ease of modern transitional style. Architectural details: rounded corner posts, softly molded edges, and delicately turned bun feet, create a sense of heritage reimagined. Constructed in acacia solids and veneers, the collection is finished in a warm chestnut tone with a soft satin luster, accented by brushed brass hardware. Quiet luxury defines the aesthetic; tailored, understated, and enduringly classic. Stewart is available for living, dining and bedroom.

A STYLISH REVIVAL

Pull-up chairs are having a decisive moment, reemerging as the jewelry of the room—small in scale, but rich in personality. These silhouettes embrace a couture sensibility, where decorative fringe, bullion trim, and tactile upholstery transform occasional seating into statement pieces that command attention from every angle. The latest interpretations blur the line between furniture and fashion, pairing sculptural forms with layers of movement and texture that feel both nostalgic & unmistakably current.

ALTO COLLECTION

The Alto Collection, crafted from oak solids and veneers, explores sculptural modernism through a warm, elevated lens. Finished in smoked umber with a wire-brushed texture and satin, wax-like sheen, it reflects a refined Organic Modern sensibility. A signature horizontal square tambour detail wraps across doors, drawers, posts, and bed forms, creating a rhythmic yet grounded design language, while minimalist brushed brass hardware adds a jewelry-like accent. The credenza is topped with honed Royal Diana marble, offering a final note of quiet opulence. Alto is available for living, dining and bedroom.
