Creative Renaissance

“My soul comes alive when I’m in France, that’s why I started ATOP to share my passion with others and so travelers can bring a little bit of France back to their homes.” - Lorie

Meet your Guide

“Creativity has a way of weaving us together much like food—threading one ingredient or idea to another until something new unfolds. ATOP blossomed from my love of France and a desire to share its joy, beauty, and inspiration with you.”

-Lorie

I've always been a creative at heart. Before founding A Taste of Paris Culinary Excursions, I served as Director of Creative Design for a $550 million clothing retailer, leading a team where vision, artistry, and innovation were essential every day. That creative foundation continues to inspire everything I do today.

As a teaching chef and founder of A Taste of Paris, I share my passion for food, travel, and culture through cooking classes, regular TV appearances, and speaking engagements. My award-winning blog, A Taste of Paris, celebrates food and lifestyle with a zest for gathering people around the table. I bring that same creative spirit to every trip, class, and event I host.

I've had a lifelong love affair with France and with the elegance of simple pleasures. The sights, flavors, and experiences continue to draw me back to discover new treasures and be inspired. Together, in Paris, we'll uncover beauty, spark creativity, and craft memories that last a lifetime.

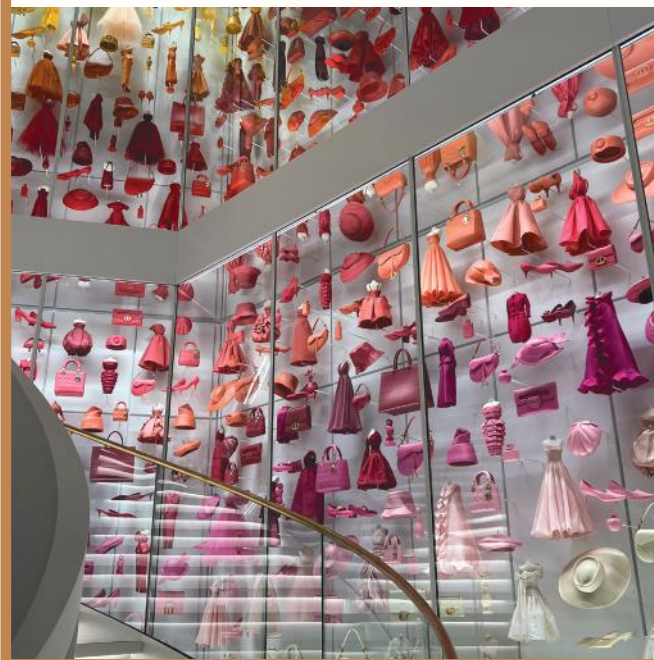

Taste

THE BEAUTY. THE COLORS. THE ELEGANCE.

To taste Paris is to savor life itself. Here, flavor is more than food—it is found in color, light, texture, and beauty at every turn. The city has a way of feeding both body and soul, offering experiences that delight the senses and spark the imagination. In Paris, every detail is a reminder that life is meant to be lived with richness and joy.

You will enjoy a carefully curated assortment of creative experiences, each designed to awaken every sense. From French floral design, to shaping clay by hand, and capturing impressions in your travel sketchbook, each moment invites you to stretch your creativity. We'll explore gardens, learn the delicate art of crafting colorful macarons, and spend a full day treasure-hunting at the world's largest brocante market, guided to match your personal style. Each experience and restaurant is chosen not only for its excellence but also for its beauty and artistry, ensuring that every moment is as inspiring as it is delightful.

Nearly every day, we will come together for a shared tasting—whether it is food, wine, or a moment of pure creative play. These gatherings are not only about flavor, but about opening yourself to discovery, savoring beauty, and nourishing your spirit. In Paris, to taste is to awaken, and through each experience, you will find yourself fed in ways far richer than the palate alone.

Discover

FRESH VISION. NEW CONNECTIONS. THE JOY OF CREATIVITY.

Paris has always been a city of discovery—of new ideas, bold visions, and fresh ways of seeing the world. Whether your creativity takes the form of a profession or simply the way you live, this retreat is an invitation to rediscover your spark. In the city that has fueled visionaries for generations

For creative business owners, the challenge is real. There are days when the words refuse to flow, when ideas feel just out of reach, when the silence of working alone becomes heavy. It is in those moments that inspiration feels most elusive—and it is in those moments that a retreat like this becomes essential. Here, surrounded by kindred spirits and guided experiences, the walls of isolation fall away, and space opens for imagination to stretch and breathe again.

This is not a trip about monuments or museums—it is about you. We've gathered some of the city's most inspiring Parisian experiences into one beautiful, concentrated journey designed to ignite self-discovery. This is your invitation to step away from routine, reconnect with your source of inspiration, and open yourself to experiences designed to ignite the imagination in the most beautiful city on earth.

Each workshop, each shared moment, becomes a mirror to see yourself in new ways, uncovering fresh possibilities, and a renewed sense of purpose.

Be Inspired

BE INSPIRED BY PARIS. BE INSPIRED BY THE POSSIBILITIES.

Awaken your senses as you step into a week designed to feed your spirit and your creativity. Each day brings new tastings to delight the palate, time to reflect and capture your thoughts on paper, and artful encounters that spark fresh ways of seeing the world.

With experiences that engage all five senses—whether tasting, creating, journaling, or exploring—you'll be immersed in inspiration from morning to night. Expect to return home buzzing with ideas, refreshed energy, and a renewed creative spark that will stay with you long after the trip ends.

“Traveling with a Taste of Paris was a once-in-a-lifetime experience for me. Learning from Lorie and engaging with such a lovely group of ladies, combined with French culture and food, was so inspiring. Belly and heart are full! I cannot recommend this trip more.”
