CELEBRATING NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

November is Native American Heritage Month — a time to honor the enduring strength, beauty, and wisdom of Native cultures, traditions, and histories.

For us, this month carries deep meaning. Hunter Health’s story is rooted in the Native community, and our mission continues to be guided by the values and resilience that have sustained Native peoples for generations.

This month and always, we remember, respect, and celebrate the voices, traditions, and contributions that continue to shape our shared future. To our Native American peers, we are proud to salute, support, and stand by you – not just this month, but every day.

OUR TEAM'S BEST DAY AT HUNTER HEALTH

We asked our team members to share their best day at Hunter Health. Here are some more:

“I see an impact from our work every day, such as getting patients the prescriptions they need at the lowest cost. But my favorite moments come from working with my colleagues. Whether it’s learning the ropes, seeing them brainstorm ways to help a customer, or going above and beyond to help a patient.”

“Although I’ve only been here about a month, I can confidently say the people who work here make Hunter Health special. They are so welcoming that you never feel out of place or ‘too dumb’ to ask questions. Hunter Health has a great learning and uplifting environment.”

SPOOKTACULAR RESULTS ARE IN

It was enough to make you say, “Great Scott!” as our teams went all out for Halloween! The creativity, laughter, and spooky spirit were on full display — and now it’s time to reveal who took home the top prizes. Thanks to everyone who joined the fun and helped make this Halloween one to remember!

THE WINNERS ARE:

Best Individual Costume:

Daniel Fowler as Dr. Hunter

Best Group Costume:

Roy Wise, Aaron DeHaven, Danny Thompson, and Dennis Clary as the Back to the Future Part II crew

Best Decoration:

Aaron DeHaven with his Back to the Future–themed setup

MISSION MINUTE

“A patient recently was praising us and told me she would tell anyone who wanted to listen about how wonderful we are! She also mentioned that she started seeing us when she was uninsured but later obtained insurance and had no plans to start seeing anyone else because of how wonderful we are.”—Hunter Health Team

CHEROKEE CHIEF VISITS HUNTER HEALTH

We were honored to host Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Chuck Hoskin Jr. and associates for a tour of our Central Clinic, and to discuss opportunities for collaboration.

Our CEO Amy Feimer met with the guests and was joined by some of our staff and board members for a day filled with positive energy.

CELEBRATING OUR INCREDIBLE TEAM

Medical Assistants Recognition Week was Oct. 20-24. We took time to celebrate our amazing MAs with food, treats, and plenty of appreciation! To our incredible Medical Assistants: Thank you for your skill, empathy, and unwavering dedication to our patients and community. You make a difference every single day.

It was also National Pharmacy Week, and Oct. 21 was specifically National Pharmacy Technician Day! It was a chance to recognize the incredible work of our pharmacy technicians. Your hard work doesn't go unnoticed — thank you for being an essential part of the Hunter Health team!

And we celebrated National Nurse Practitioner (APRN) Week Nov. 10-14 — a time to recognize the incredible care, expertise, and compassion that Advanced Practice Registered Nurses bring to our patients and community every day. We're proud to honor our own outstanding APRNs. Your dedication helps make high-quality, patient-centered care possible.

STAFF SHOW OFF FELINE FRIENDS

Some members of our team showed off their furry family members for National Cat Day on Oct. 29th.

OUT and ABOUT

Here are some of our recent community outreach highlights:

We were proud to join the Native American Community Resource Coalition for two special events this fall. On Oct. 11th, we took part in the Indigenous Peoples Remembrance Day celebration at the Mid-America All-Indian Museum, offering free flu vaccines and sharing information about our services. We also helped distribute free groceries to families in need — an event that was about more than food but about giving with open hearts and honoring the strength of our community.
